ENCOUNTERING CULTURE

We listen today, in Acts, of how very diverse individuals, all Jewish, heard the proclamation of Jesus in their own languages. These were likely diaspora Jews who had lived in other lands and had learned different languages and cultures. Throughout the book, the author of Acts is hinting at what will happen later.

The Good News will be received by different peoples and cultures. There will be dialogue between Jesus' message and each culture, and the message will take root within the culture. Many persons will reject Jesus, but those who accept him will learn to proclaim Jesus, and join in the Spirit's work of transforming the culture.

We too are invited to join God's mission in our own culture, approaching with both humility and boldness. We are to be servants, companions, and sometimes prophets, always with charity and openness. The Spirit calls us both to engage in dialogue with others and to proclaim Jesus with our lives.

GIFTS TO BE SHARED

Through Paul's ministry in Corinth, the Christian community there had sprung up quickly. A variety of spiritual gifts were enthusiastically shared. But that variety led to arguments among them. Some believed that some gifts, such as speaking in tongues, were more important. Those with certain gifts gained honor and status in the community.

In his letter to the Corinthians, Paul challenged this. He wrote that all are gifted, and all gifts come from the Holy Spirit. The gifts, though quite varied, are fundamentally equal in importance. They have one shared purpose, to proclaim and live the good news of Jesus.

Each of us is invited to consider how the Spirit has given us gifts within the Church to participate in God's mission in the world. Our gifts are valuable and distinctly ours. But they are no better or worse than the gifts of others. All are given to serve our common purpose. With both humility and boldness, let us share our gifts.

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1-11; Ps 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34; 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Gal 5:16-25; Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15 Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

ENCUENTRO CON LA CULTURA

Hoy escuchamos en el libro de los Hechos como personas de diferentes lugares, todos judíos, escucharon la proclamación acerca de Jesús en sus propios idiomas. Muy probablemente ellos eran judíos de la diáspora por lo que habían vivido en otras tierras y aprendido otros idiomas y culturas. A lo largo del libro, el autor de los Hechos insinúa lo que sucederá después.

La Buena Nueva va a ser recibida por diferentes pueblos y culturas. Habrá un diálogo entre el mensaje de Jesús y cada cultura, y el mensaje se enraizará dentro de cada cultura. Muchas personas rechazarán a Jesús, pero aquellas que lo acepten aprenderán a proclamar a Jesús y se unirán a la labor del Espíritu de transformar la cultura.

Nosotros también estamos invitados a unirnos a la misión de Dios en nuestra propia cultura, acercándonos con humildad y audacia. Debemos ser servidores, compañeros y a veces profetas, siempre con caridad y apertura. El Espíritu nos llama tanto a entablar un diálogo con otras personas como a proclamar a Jesús con nuestras vidas.

DONES PARA COMPARTIR

Durante el ministerio de Pablo en Corinto, la comunidad cristiana ahí surgió rápidamente. Una variedad de dones espirituales fue compartida con entusiasmo. Pero esa variedad los llevó a tener discusiones entre ellos. Algunos creían que algunos dones, como el hablar en lenguas era el más importante. Aquellas personas con dones particulares obtuvieron honores y estatus social en la comunidad.

En su carta a los corintios, Pablo desafió esto. Él escribió que todas aquellas personas con dones, y todos los dones venían del Espíritu Santo. Los dones, aunque muy diferentes, son fundamentalmente iguales en importancia. Tienen un propósito compartido, proclamar y vivir la Buena Nueva de Jesús.

Cada uno de nosotros está invitado a considerar cómo el Espíritu nos ha dado dones dentro de la Iglesia para participar en la misión de Dios en el mundo. Nuestros dones son valiosos y distintivamente nuestros. Pero no son ni mejores ni peores que los dones de los demás. Todos fueron dados para servir nuestro propósito común tanto con humildad y entusiasmo, compartamos nuestros dones.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners:

I thank each one of you who generously donated $20.00 with the purpose of purchasing an entire box of chicken. We proudly raised $1,960, the equivalency of 98 boxes of chicken. Our community has again proven to be the greatest! I was confident that my community would demonstrate their commitment and loyalty to your parish community and to the Risen Lord. I now challenge you also to buy and sell as many tickets as possible to support our chicken plate fundraiser scheduled for this Sunday, May 20th.

We officially honor and commemorate our country's fallen heroes next Sunday, May 27th. I invite each of my parishioners to attend our 12:00 noon mass for our Memorial Day Mass. Please take time to remember the ultimate sacrifice our service men and women, and their families, have taken so that each one of us may celebrate our daily freedoms. May God bless our service men and women!

We welcome Victor and Karen Araguz, new coordinators for the Religious Education program. I invite the community to rally behind Victor and Karan for the success of the program and of our children.

The telephone line service in the office has been restored. Both temporary line number 210.858-6920 and the original number 210.434.3247 are operational. The new temporary number will be disconnected as soon as the features for the original number have been installed. I apologize for the inconvenience this experience may have caused our parishioners.

We are very proud of Dominique who has accepted the role of Youth Minister. Dominique has developed into an awesome, dedicated, committed and faithful young lady and will ultimately focus on her church mission. I am confident she will do very well. Please rally behind Dominique and her new leadership committee to lead our youth in their journey. Our youth are, and will always be, the future of our church. Our youth meet every Thursday at 7:00 p.m. in classroom #1. Please encourage your children and grandchildren to join our youth group.

Here is the leadership committee of our youth: Dominique Dominguez, Raeann Cruz, Angie Diaz, Bobby Gallegos, Liz Gallegos, Alyssa Araguz, Brandon Cruz, Marisa Dominguez, Danielle Martinez and Rebecca Dominguez.

I thank all of you who have pledged or donated money toward the Capital Campaign. St. John Berchmans community is required to raise $352,000 with $140,800 the equivalency being 40% being returned to our parish to address three projects that we have identified for our community. As of the weekend of May 19-20, 2018 only 26% have pledged or paid. Please consider making your pledge as soon as possible. I thank those of you who have contributed toward the campaign.

May God bless you always,

Father Fidèle Okitembo Dikete, Pastor

"So you could not stay awake with Me for even one hour? Be on guard and pray that you may not undergo the test." - Matthew 26:40-41

There are different ways to "watch one hour" with the Lord. One of the most powerful and fruitful ways to spend an hour in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament is called a "Holy Hour" because it is an hour spend in the presence of the Holy Eucharist.

Which is Christ, himself, the One who alone is Holy. You can pray alone or with others, before Jesus in the Tabernacle in our Adoration Chapel.

PENTECOST SUNDAY is the great feast of the Holy Spirit which descended upon the Apostles and they were granted the gift of the Holy Spirit. Those gifts helped them to fulfill their mission to preach the Gospel to all nations. The Apostles began to preach the Gospel in all the languages that the Jews who were gathered there spoke, and about 3,000 people were converted and baptized that day. That is why Pentecost is often called, "the birthday of the Church." Pentecost is also the last and greatest feast of Easter's 50 days. Jesus reassures us, He will satisfy our thirst, lead us beyond our fear, and strengthen us to live our baptismal mission of evangelization.

ALL ARE SENT

Fifty days after Easter Sunday we celebrate the fulfillment of all God's promises in the feast of Pentecost, a feast that has sometimes been called the birthday of the church. One last time we are reminded that we Christians have received the Holy Spirit, not for our own benefit, but to enable us to follow our Christian vocation.

The centerpiece of the scriptures for Pentecost is the account in Acts of the Apostles of the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The other readings for this Sunday help us to understand what it means to live out our Christian vocation. Paul's letter shows us the gifts and fruits that the Holy Spirit gives to us. John's Gospel reminds us that Jesus has sent all his disciples to share his forgiveness and peace, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Can I sense the movement of the Holy spirit in my life right now? Does it feel more like a gentle breath or a strong driving wind?
