THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 26, 2025

www.stjohnberchmans.com

A PARTY? TO CELEBRATE RULES? REALLY?

Twenty-first-century American culture relies so much on brief social media texts—Facebook, Twitter—that we might wonder how the “men, women, and those children old enough to understand” (Nehemiah 8:2) could spend the entire morning listening to Ezra the priest read from the book of Jewish law. Returning home after seventy years of exile, the people had to rebuild their homeland—the city of Jerusalem, the temple, social and economic structures—all of it. Listening to Ezra reading the ancient law seems to have reconnected the people to traditions that gave meaning to all their struggles. They were weeping tears of joy!

The psalmist is likewise moved by the beauty of God’s law. It is not a bothersome restriction on human behavior, but a wise guide for people seeking wisdom and enduring happiness. At the conclusion of his reading, Ezra instructs them to be joyful, to “eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks . . . for today is holy to our LORD” (Nehemiah 8:10). Rejoicing is the proper response to the rediscovery of God’s law.

AND EVERYONE GETS TO ATTEND!

Ezra also tells the people to “allot portions to those who had nothing prepared,” to make sure that everyone is included, whether or not they had anything to share. When Jesus reads a much shorter passage to a much smaller assembly in the synagogue, he announces his intention to ensure that no one is excluded. The Spirit of the Lord is leading him to heal the afflictions of those who are almost routinely “exiled” from mainstream society, people who are poor, people who have been in prison, people with physical or mental disabilities. Unlike Jesus, we cannot work miracles to heal them or mitigate their conditions; but like Jesus, we can work to bring these “exiles” to a “homeland” where God’s law ensures that everyone can rejoice, because everyone is included.

TODAY’S READINGS: Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10; Ps 19:8-15; 1 Cor 12:12-30; Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

¿UNA FIESTA? ¿PARA CELEBRAR REGLAS? ¿EN SERIO?

La cultura estadounidense del siglo XXI se basa demasiado en breves textos en las redes sociales, Facebook, Twitter, que podría hacernos preguntar cómo los “hombres, mujeres y esos niños con edad suficiente para entender” (Nehemías 8, 2) podrían pasar toda la mañana escuchando al sacerdote Ezra leer el libro judío de la Ley. Regresar a casa después de setenta años en el exilio, las personas tuvieron que reconstruir su tierra natal, la ciudad de Jerusalén, el templo, las estructuras sociales y económicas, todo eso. Escuchar a Esdras leer la antigua ley parece haber reconectado a las personas a las tradiciones que les dieron significado a todos sus conflictos. ¡Ellos lloraban lagrimas de alegría!

El salmista es asimismo conmovido por la belleza de la ley de Dios. No es una restricción pesada para el comportamiento humano, sino una guía sabia para las personas que buscaban sabiduría y felicidad permanente. Al término de la lectura, Esdras los instruye para estar alegres, para “comer alimentos exquisitos y beber licores dulces . . . este día ha sido consagrado a nuestro Señor” (Nehemías 8:10). El júbilo es la respuesta apropiada al redescubrimiento de la ley de Dios.

¡Y TODOS ASISTIERON!

Esdras también le dice al pueblo que “manden su porción a los que no han preparado nada” para asegurarse que todos están incluidos, si es que ellos no tenían nada que Compartir. Cuando Jesús leyó un pasaje mucho más pequeño a una asamblea más pequeña en la sinagoga, él anuncia su intención de procurar que nadie sea excluido. El Espíritu del Señor lo está guiando para sanar las aflicciones de quienes habitualmente casi son “excluidos” de la sociedad dominante, personas que son pobres, personas que han estado en prisión, personas con discapacidades físicas o mentales. A diferencia de Jesús, no podemos hacer milagros para sanarlos o mitigar sus condiciones; pero como Jesús, podemos trabajar para llevar a estos “exiliados” a una tierra natal donde la ley de Dios asegura que todos pueden alegrarse, porque todos están incluidos.

LECTURAS DE HOY: Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10; Sal 19:8 - 15; 1 Cor 12:12-30; Lc 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

I will be taking my annual vacation on Monday, January 27th through Thursday, February 27th, 2025. Please keep me in your prayers as I travel to the Democratic Republic of the Congo to spend some needed time with my family and my Grandson Fidelito, who will be celebrating one year and 4 months on February 1, 2025. God is great, all the time.

Today, Sunday, January 26th, 2025 we celebrate Catholic Schools Week. Our church has been blessed with a beautiful school for many years. Many of your parents and successful citizens of our nation studied in our Catholic school. I challenge you to continue supporting the school financially and also by sending your children and grandchildren to our school to support this beautiful legacy. I thank all past leaders who led the foundation and sacrifice so that we all enjoy this great institution. May God bless our teachers, faculty members, parents and our beloved students.

I invite you to our friendly competition that intends to improve our health. You can register anytime to lose weight and enhance your health. You are given a year until next Christmas to lose weight. If you lose 10 pounds, you will be awarded a $50 VISA gift card. For any additional 10 pound loss, a $50 VISA card will be given to the person. Great luck is offered to each participant. May God walk by our side as we continue improving our health. Remember, the deadline for our friendly competition is on Friday, January 31, 2025. May the year 2025 improve our relationship with God and our brothers and sisters.

I will continue to recognize our leaders for their commitment and loyalty to St. John Berchmans. A plaque has been awarded to each one of them in appreciation for their dedication to the church in support for its saving mission and grace.

Thank you for your generosity and God Bless you,

Father Fidèle Okitembo Dikete, Pastor
